

Workshop on Labour and Family Economics

10th edition

July 1, 2025

Call for papers

The WOLFE workshop. The 10th Workshop on Labour and Family Economics (WOLFE) will be held on July 1, 2025. It is organised by the Department of Economics and Related Studies at the University of York and will take place at the King's Manor in York (United Kingdom).

We invite paper submissions in any area of Labour and Family Economics including Human Capital Formation, Child Development, Health Economics, Applied Microeconometrics, Household Economics, Gender Identity and Norms, Labour Market Outcomes, Policy Evaluation and Education.

Paper submission procedure. Please submit an electronic version of the paper or extended abstract (in PDF format) no later than March 28, 2025. Authors will be notified by early May 2025.

Keynote speaker. The keynote speaker for the 10th edition of the WOLFE will be Thomas Cornelissen, Professor of Economics at the University of Essex.

Thomas Cornelissen
(University of Essex)

Practical information. The WOLFE is a small, focused, one-day workshop and we ask that participants attend all sessions. There are no registration fees and the University of York will pay for all catering, including the workshop dinner on July 1 (which all speakers are invited to attend). Accommodation will be covered (up to two nights). For more information, please visit the website.

Scientific committee. Professor Cheti Nicoletti, Professor Emma Tominey, Dr. Jack Britton, Dr. Tho Pham, Dr. Khushboo Surana.

Contact. For general inquiries please contact wolfe-workshop@york.ac.uk